HISTORY of the Opera House

- MOH was built in 1890 by entrepreneur John H. Perkins and designed by renowned architect W.R. Gunn, who designed many civic buildings including the Grand Opera House in Macon, GA.
- It featured retail stores on the ground floor and a 300+ seat theater upstairs.
- The theater held live performances until the early 1900's when a change in the rail system reduced travel to Monticello and theater attendance declined.
- Retail continued downstairs into the late 20th century but the theater remained closed and fell into disrepair. The building was finally slated for demolition in 1972.
- Concerned citizens started a movement to save the building. Initial restoration efforts enabled live performances to return in the early 1980's.
- The theater is noted for its curved wall design which creates near perfect acoustics. The chandeliers are original and were converted to electricity from gas. The balcony seating is also original. The balcony railing is too low to allow for usage by the general public.

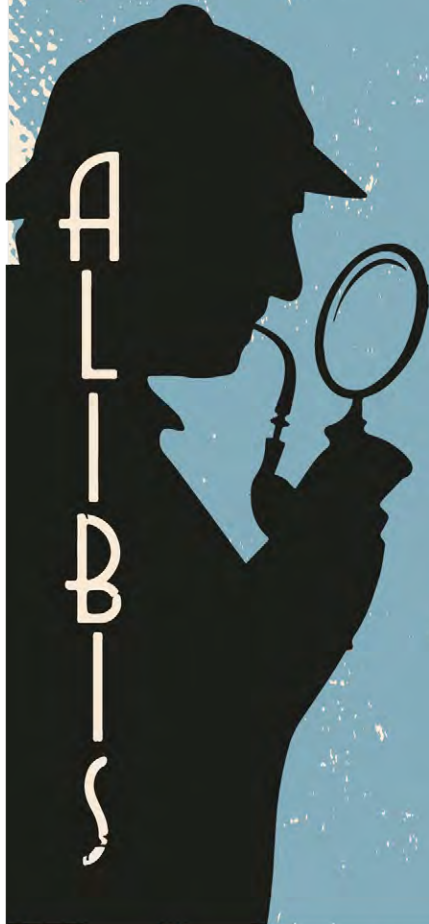

There is much more to know!

Tours of Monticello Opera House are available, and will give you a more complete version of the fascinating history of this institution.

Whodunit, Howdunit??
When famous Primavera Donna throws a party and winds up dead, it's up to her shocked guests to figure out how and who, and why the hired help is so annoying! Shades of Sherlock Holmes, Agatha Christie, and Ten Little Indians. As the storm outside rages and the body count mounts, the guests must contend with interruptions, shocking revelations, tacky special effects, and the arrival of a mysterious visitor. The action and repartee are fast-paced, and the surprising conclusion leaves only one question: who gets the movie rights?

by Steve Cuden & Frank Wildhorn
Book and Lyrics by Leslie Bricusse
Music By Frank Wildhorn
Orchestrations by Kim Scharnberg
Arrangements by Jason Howland
Directed by Naomi Rose-Mock*

An evocative tale of two men – one, a doctor, passionate and romantic; the other, a terrifying madman – and two women – one, beautiful and trusting; the other, beautiful and trusting only herself– both women in love with the same man and both unaware of his dark secret. A devoted man of science, Dr. Henry Jekyll is driven to find a chemical breakthrough that can solve some of mankind's most challenging medical dilemmas. Rebuffed by the powers that be, he decides to make himself the subject of his own experimental treatments, accidentally unleashing his inner demons along with the man that the world would come to know as Mr. Hyde.

EL GATO SIN AMIGOS

The Nobody
Likes Me Cat

This charming children's play is based on a short story by the Cuban writer and artist Teresita Gómez Vallejo, adapted for theater by Joe Rosenberg. Our guest director Ben Gunter has given the play a contemporary and Floridian accent that make it a delightful experience for Spanish and non-Spanish speaking audiences. El Gato Sin Amigos tells the story of Rufo, a lazy cat looking for friends to talk and play with.

Unfortunately, they are not always available. In his effort to find friends, he'll meet some Floridian animals: a manatee, an anhinga, and a Florida panther, who will show him that he can find a balance and enjoy a happy and productive life with many friends. This is an interactive play where children will be able to sing, learn words in different languages, and engage in Rufo's adventure. Come to the beautiful Monticello Opera House and enjoy this fun play!

Trailer Park★
CHRISTMAS
★ MUSICAL

Music and Lyrics by David Nehls

Book by Betsy Kelso

Directed by Robert Nelson

It's holiday time down in Armadillo Acres (North Florida's premier mobile-living community), and everyone's filled with warmth and beer. But when a freak bout of amnesia strikes the trailer park Scrooge, neighborly love is put to the test. Be on hand as Betty, Lin, and Pickles jingle all the way with some new neighbors in an all-new, all-trailer-park musical! This companion to the original GREAT AMERICAN TRAILER PARK MUSICAL is just as much of a cat-fightin', sun-worshippin', chair-throwin' good time—but with tinsel and Keg Nog.

BOB MALONE

WITH OPENING ACT, RACHEL HILLMAN
September 14, 2023

Called a “keyboard wizard” by The New Yorker, BOB MALONE has amassed a loyal international fan-base through twenty-five years of relentless touring and nine critically acclaimed album releases. He has also played keyboards for John Fogerty since 2011. He’s been a session player for Ringo Starr and Avril Lavigne, and his recording of “You’re A Mean One, Mr. Grinch” was the theme in the 2018 Illumination/Universal movie trailers for The Grinch. Bob combines unforgettable songwriting, refreshing reinterpretations of classic tunes, and a one-of-a-kind hybrid of rock, melodic pop, blues, and New Orleans R&B, delivered with high-energy piano virtuosity and a voice all his own. His new album, Good People, is out now!
